Left: This scary monster frighten—everyone so much that even our photographer wouldn't venture close enough to ask its name.

Right: It's Halloween, and a favorite prank is to release the circus animals. Everyone attending the dance sure was glad that Arnetta Atkins was available to control Nona Davis

DANCE, DANCE, DANCE

HANGING OF THE GREENS

One of the highlights of the Christmas season at Union College is the Hanging of the Greens. This event is held annually in the Conway Boatman Chapel. Twelve campus organizations helped decorate the Chapel and participated in the singing of Christmas carols.

Bob Long of Federalsburg, Maryland, aids Becky Houghton of Louisville, Kentucky, in decorating one of the windows in the Chapel.

HOMECOMING WEEKEND

PETE MOORE'S CELEBRITY ROAST

April 26, Dr. Paul S. Moore, Coach and Professor of Health and Physical Education, was scorched at a luncheon in the gymnasium.

Dr. Herman Bush of Eastern Kentucky University, a long-time friend of Coach Moore, is pictured here presenting Coach Moore with a reminder of by-gone college days.

ROAD RACE

The Union College Office of Campus Ministry and the Union College track team sponsored a ten kilometer run, a two-mile run, and a one-mile run-walk on April 27 as part of the Homecoming Weekend festivities.

Rev. Quentin Scholtz happily reaches the finish line.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT . . .

Ms. Terri Kriviski and her escort, Mr. Rob Cronin, enjoy their spotlight dance at the 1980 Homecoming Dance.

CABARET 1980

Mr. Rick Preston dazzles everyone with his extraordinary talents on the trumpet as he plays the Chuck Mangione hit "Feels So Good."

Ms. Beve Carr invokes emotions as she sings her solo version of "Sometimes When We Touch."

Performing "Queen Bee" from the film A STAR IS BORN, Dena Newman entertains all with her dramatic song styles.

Mr. Bob Beck enters as the "Melt Squad" in the skit "Ice Bust."

Ms. Becky Houghton and Ms. Sue Slater resist Mr. Glenn Nichols' attempt to separate the "Sisters."

ABOVE: Ms. Arnetta Atkins, Ms. Pat Brodbeck, Mr. Whitney Green, Ms. Debbie Bays, Mr. Steve Broughton, and Mr. Keith Banks participated in the children's play HEADS AND TAILS. The presentation was performed in the Conway Boatman Chapel.

Honors Day

Special Awards

Theta Phi Delta

Miss Terri Kriviski and Mr. Rudolf Thomsen have been selected as individuals who have contributed outstanding service to Union College. Each year, the recipients of this senior service award represent the qualities that Miss Frances Patridge has exhibited during her years of loyal service to Union College, the students, the faculty, and the administration. This award expresses the ideal, "Thelo Pistos Diakonein." "I wish to serve faithfully."

Who's Who

SOCCER TEAM STATE CHAMPS

Coach Larry Inkster and the members of the Union College soccer team never imagined that they were fielding a championship team early this September when the Bulldogs were beginning their first season of intercollegiate competition.

In spite of the odds against them and much to the surprise of the coach, players, and fans, the Bulldogs finished their year with a victory in the finals of the KISA Division II tournament at Transylvania University. Union's enviable record of 11-4 included tournament wins over Cumberland College, Eastern Kentucky University, and Georgetown College.

"I'm very proud of this team," said Inkster. "In the first year of intercollegiate competition they proved something to the school, the community, and themselves."

In addition to having the number one team in KISA Division II, the Bulldogs had the leading scorer in the state in Mohammad Jahangiri who scored a total of 23 goals this season.

Stespean Staff

Terri Kriviski, editor.

Dear Readers,

The first thing that we would like to say is - WHEW, yearbooks are a lot of hard work. We hope that our efforts have met with everyone's approval.

Some special people deserve recognition for all of the help that they have contributed: Miss Kim Moore, Dr. Judi Jennings, Dr. Lester Woody, Dr. Jan Finkel, and Dr. Mahlon Miller.

Without the aid of these persons, our advertisers, and you - the purchaser, this yearbook would not have been possible.

Sincerely yours,
Terri and Doris Ann

Dedication

After thirteen years, Dean Mays has resigned as Dean of Women, Associate Dean of Students and Dean of Students.

She has been both an authority symbol and a shoulder to lean on for students' problems big and small.

"I really enjoyed working with young people, and I'm going to miss it," she said. Now, she plans to have more free time for travel, gardening and home life.

Over Fifty Second-Generation Students Enrolled

Many Thanks are in order to Dr. and Mrs. Leo A. Geiss for their support of our Yearbook

Mrs. Leo A. Geiss, St. Charles, Illinois, received the Alumni Award for distinguished service to Union College at the May, 1978, commencement. She was honored for her loyal support to Union College, especially its Home Economics Department. Active in forming the Trustee Wives' Organization, she rarely misses any of the outstanding events on the campus. Shown here with her, on the left, is her husband, Dr. Leo A. Geiss, who has been a member of the Board of Trustees since 1948, and on the right is Dr. Mahlon A. Miller, president of Union College since 1959.
